

ARTES VOCALES Auditions for 2022/23 Season

The mission of Artes Vocaless is to bring innovative choral programming to Los Angeles communities, to provide rigorous vocal training, and to offer career-enhancing opportunities to gifted musicians and composers. Artistic Director Dr. Steven Kronauer brings his expertise in vocal education and bel canto singing technique, his broad musical knowledge, and his generous spirit to singers and audiences alike.

FALL 2022 CONCERT REPERTOIRE: Martín Palmeri, Misa a Buenos Aires (Misa Tango)

SCHEDULE: In-person rehearsals will take place on Monday nights in Pasadena, 7:30-9:30 pm, starting September 12. Our Fall 2022 concert will be held on Saturday, November 19.

SAFETY: All singers and staff are required to be fully vaccinated and boosted and to wear high-quality masks (i.e. N95, KN95 or KN94) during rehearsals until further notice.

AUDITIONS: Auditions are being accepted on a rolling basis. To sign up, please visit www.artesvocaless.com

What our singers have said about Artes Vocaless

- “Excellent music director, repertoire, and the great vocal ability of singers”
- “Continually striving for a high artistic caliber of performance; designing programs of astounding creative vision; providing opportunities for young singers to solo; making a positive social impact in the community through multi-cultural programming and poetry that inspires.”

What our singers have said about the Artistic Conductor, Dr. Kronauer

- “Excellent musicality, deep knowledge of repertoire, clear communication with the baton”
- “Musicianship, vocal prowess, interpretation based on text”
- “Innovative vocal training ... Healthy artistic singing... Brilliant artistic vision”

To find out more about Artes Vocaless, please visit www.artesvocaless.com